

Rachel D. Polson, CPAPartner612 876 4788*Rachel.Polson@bakertilly.com

Rachel Polson is a Partner with the Commercial Services Group of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP, and has been with the firm since 1997. Rachel is the firm-wide leader for computer software and technology and professional service companies, with her primary practice area in providing auditing and accounting services. She works with a variety of clients from development stage to public reporting (SEC) companies. Her industry focus areas are technology and computer software, professional services, restaurants, retail, gaming-related companies and broker-dealers.

Specific Experience

- > Serves as Partner on numerous SEC reporting clients and privately-held companies.
- > Possesses in depth knowledge of SEC reporting requirements and compliance.
- > Experience with equity transactions including proper accounting treatment of stock options, stock warrants, and equity financing.
- > Provides merger and acquisition support through due diligence work.
- > Prepares forecasting models for internal client use and use in financing transactions.

Industry Involvement

- > American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Minnesota Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Assists with on-campus college recruiting and networking.
- > Attends seminars and training related to SEC reporting entities.

Education

St. Cloud State University
Bachelor of Science in Accounting