

Jeffrey R. DeYoung, CPA, MST

Regional Managing Partner

312 729 8070 Illinois
248 372 7300 Michigan
612 876 4760 Minnesota
jeff.deyoung@bakertilly.com

Jeff DeYoung is the Regional Managing Partner for the Illinois, Michigan, and Minneapolis offices of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP and has been with the firm since 1999. Jeff is a member of the firm's Management and Executive Committees. He previously served as the leader of the Construction and Real Estate Services Group prior to being named Regional Managing Partner of the Minneapolis office in 2005.

Specific experience

- > Leads the Illinois, Michigan, and Minneapolis offices, which are comprised of more than 500 professionals working in tax, audit, consulting, wealth management, employee benefits, and staffing.
- > Provides leadership, management, and strategic direction for the Illinois, Michigan, and Minneapolis regions, including client service, staff retention and recruiting, and profitability.
- > Implements regional deployment of firm business objectives.
- > Specializes in business formations, reorganizations, acquisitions, and liquidations.
- > Assists clients with capital needs, both debt and equity.
- > Serves large construction and real estate clients with tax and cost capitalization and allocation for construction contracts.

Industry involvement

- > American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Illinois CPA Society
- > Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants (MNCPA)
- > Wisconsin Society of Certified Public Accountants
- > Co-Author - "IRS Takes a Closer Look at Look-Back Interest Compliance," Journal of Construction Accounting and Taxation, December 2005

Candor. Insight. Results.

Jeffrey R. DeYoung, page 2

Industry involvement (cont.)

- > Co-Author - "Taxpayer Intent and Timing - The Key Factors to Claim Loss from the Abandonment of Real Estate," MN Real Estate Journal, June 2005
- > Co-Author - "Homes Built for Speculative Sale," Journal of Construction Accounting & Taxation, February 2004
- > Speaker - Land Development Conference, MN Real Estate Journal, June 2005
- > Frequent speaker at construction and real estate development related seminars.
- > Adjunct Professor at the University of Minnesota Masters of Business Taxation Program - Taxation of Property Transactions.

Community involvement

- > Minnesota Chamber of Commerce, Board of Directors
- > Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra, Board of Directors, 2007-2008
- > Great American History Theatre - Former Treasurer, 2001-2005
- > Hudson, Wisconsin, Golf Club President, Treasurer, and Board Member, 2000-2004
- > Hudson Chamber of Commerce, Treasurer/Board Member, 1995-1998

Education

University of Wisconsin - La Crosse
Bachelor of Science in Accounting

William Howard Taft University – Santa Ana, CA
Master of Science in Taxation

Harvard Executive Education – Leadership