

Scott G. Ebert, CPA

Partner

612 876 4600

scott.ebert@bakertilly.com

Scott Ebert is Partner-in-Charge of the Minneapolis Manufacturing and Distribution Services Group and Leader of the firm-wide SEC practice of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP. Scott has been with Baker Tilly since 1986. His area of expertise is in the manufacturing and distribution industry. His technical emphasis is as an Attest Partner.

Specific experience

- > Serves as Partner on auditing and review engagements with public and private companies in the manufacturing and distribution industry.
- > Leads numerous merger, acquisition, and sales teams with clients including negotiations and due diligence.
- > Performs operational reviews for wholesalers and distributors.
- > Develops cost models to assist clients in price negotiations for warehouse management.
- > Assists in projection of operations and cash flows related to new product lines and territories including modeling of new facilities.
- > Assists clients in planning strategies including Capital Needs Management Succession.

Industry involvement

- > National Association of Wholesaler-Distributors
- > Institute of Wholesale Industry Advisors
- > Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals
- > Wisconsin Association of Wholesalers
- > American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants
- > Advisory Board Marquette University - "Supply Chain Management"

Candor. Insight. Results.

Scott G. Ebert, page 2

Education

University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire
Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting; minor in Management
Information Systems

Ohio State University
Wholesale Executive Management Graduate