

Timothy KosiekPartner312 729 8327*tim.kosiek@bakertilly.com

Tim Kosiek, Partner in the Financial Institutions Group with Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP, joined the firm in 2009. Tim focuses on depository institutions, investment companies, broker/dealers, hedge funds, and private equity companies. He began his public accounting career in 1980 with Ernst & Young where he exclusively served financial services companies until 2000.

Specific experience

- > Has led financial statement and internal audit engagements for a wide range of financial services companies.
- > Provided audit, accounting, and other professional services in connection with a significant number of merger and acquisition and capital transactions.
- > Has extensive experience in assisting financial services companies with understanding and managing regulatory requirements, including complex regulatory agreements.
- > Has served a number of large, publicly held financial services companies, including providing extensive advice on SEC accounting and disclosure requirements.
- > Served in various leadership roles at Ernst & Young, including a three-year assignment to the National Financial Services Group and four years as a member of the Derivatives Advisory Group.
- > Has led the development of strategic and operating business plans for numerous financial services companies.
- > Served as the chief financial officer of a mid-sized banking organization for more than seven years, between 2000 and 2007.

Industry involvement

- > American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants

Education

St. John's University
Bachelor of Science in Accounting