

Christine M. Dahlhauser, CPA

Partner

608 240 2482

christine.dahlhauser@bakertilly.com

Christine Dahlhauser, Partner with Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP, has been with the firm since 1991. She leads the Manufacturing/Distribution Services Group for our Wisconsin region. She is currently the Managing Partner – Wisconsin Operations and has participated in many firm wide initiatives.

Specific experience

- > Relational Partner for manufacturing and distribution clients.
- > Partner of numerous accounting and auditing engagements.
- > Develop “low cost production” techniques designed to streamline internal year-end procedures and improve value.
- > Research of audit issues unique to distributors and manufacturers.
- > Analysis of financial trends, performance, and cash flows for wholesale/distribution.
- > Analysis of inventory costing including development of standard costs.
- > Assist client to refine the accounting and process of inventory handling and distribution activities.
- > Develop recommendations for improvement of accounting and management reporting information systems.
- > Develop and refine cycle counting programs.
- > Project Management and oversight of Baker Tilly operations, including: HR, Facilities and Administration.

Industry involvement

- > American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Financial Executives Inc.
- > National Beer Wholesalers Association

Candor. Insight. Results.

Christine M. Dahlhauser, page 2

Education

University of Wisconsin - Whitewater
Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting