

Steven E. Stensrud, CPA

Partner, Regional Risk and Compliance Leader

612 876 4797

steven.stensrud@bakertilly.com

Steve Stensrud, Partner with the Manufacturing and Distribution Services Group of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP, is the Minneapolis office's Risk and Compliance Leader. Steve has worked in accounting since 1981 and has experience serving both public registrants and private companies across multiple industries, including manufacturing, distribution and life science companies. His technical emphasis is as an Attest Partner.

Specific experience

- > Serves as Partner on auditing and review engagements with public and private companies in the manufacturing and distribution industry, including audits of accelerated and non-accelerated filers.
- > Provides merger and acquisition transaction support in various industries.
- > Assists clients in planning strategies for business growth.
- > Assists clients capital needs, both debt and equity.

Industry involvement

- > American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants
- > Attends seminars and training workshops related to SEC reporting entities.

Education

St. Cloud State University
Bachelor of Science in Accounting