

Kimberly Ginn, CIASenior Manager703 923 8677*Kim.Ginn@bakertilly.com

Kim is a member of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP's higher education and research institutions practice. Her primary focus is consulting with clients on research compliance issues and grants administration processes. She routinely conducts grant and compliance audits of higher education institutions, academic medical centers and other not-for-profit entities. In addition, she has in-depth knowledge of OMB Circular A-110, A-21, A-87, A-122, OASC-3 and the Federal Acquisition Regulation.

Specific experience

- > Over 10 years of experience in the areas of internal audit, higher education, not-for-profit and government contracts consulting and auditing.
- > Conducting risk assessments and planning audit scope
- > Designing audit plans and procedures and managing the overall execution of an audit plan.
- > Conducting investigations regarding theft of federal funds on grants and contracts with a focus on investigating financial and research misconduct.
- > Prior to joining the firm, Kimberly worked as internal auditor for the Department of Defense Office of Inspector General conducting contract, procurement, and environmental audits.

Industry involvement

- > Institute of Internal Auditors
- > National Council of University Research Administrators
- > Association of Certified Fraud Examiners
- > Associate Member of the American Bar Association
- > Society of Corporate Compliance & Ethics
- > Health Care Compliance Association
- > Treasurer of the Board of Directors for the American Century Theater in Arlington, VA.

Candor. Insight. Results.

Kimberly Ginn, page 2

Education

University of Alabama
Bachelor of Science in Finance

University of Alabama at Birmingham
Bachelor of Science in Accounting

Kim is a member of the firm's East Region consulting group, which operates as Baker Tilly Beers & Cutler PLLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP.