

Patrick J. Killeen, CPAPartner248 368 8737*patrick.killeen@bakertilly.com

Patrick Killeen, Partner, joined Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP in 2004. He specializes in auditing both publicly- and privately-held manufacturing clients with international activity. Prior to joining Baker Tilly, Patrick gained extensive audit experience with a national public accounting firm, as well as industry experience serving multiple manufacturing companies with international operations.

Specific experience

- > Leads audits of publicly- and privately-held entities with significant inbound and outbound international operations.
- > Advises publicly-held clients on SEC accounting and filing matters.
- > Consults with clients on differences between U.S GAAP, local GAAP, and IFRS.
- > Consults with clients on technical accounting and assurance issues.
- > Experienced in assisting with due diligence related to mergers, acquisitions, and sales.
- > Performs agreed upon procedure engagements and consulting projects.
- > Industry experience in acquisitions, financial reporting, expense, and working capital reduction projects.
- > Consults with owners, executives, and board members on financial reporting, accounting systems, management policies, operational opportunities, and strategic initiatives.
- > Leads audits of defined contribution and defined benefit retirement plan audits.
- > Leads campus recruitment initiatives.

Industry involvement

- > American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants, Board Member, and Chair - Manufacturing Task Force
- > Institute of Management Accountants

Candor. Insight. Results.

Patrick J. Killeen, page 2

Education

Walsh College
Bachelor of Science in Accounting