

Mike D. McKee, CPA

Partner

612 876 4694

mike.mckee@bakertilly.com

Mike McKee is a Partner at Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP and serves as the firm-wide leader of the Life Sciences and Emerging Technologies practice. Since 1994, Mike has focused on serving public and private fast-paced entrepreneurial businesses. He has assisted both domestic and international companies in a variety of industries including manufacturing, life sciences, software, internet, and clean-tech. Mike routinely works closely with management on corporate matters such as financings, mergers and acquisitions, initial public offerings, and other expansion related activities.

Specific experience

- > Serves as Partner on auditing engagements with public and private companies
- > Assists clients with the merger and acquisition transaction support
- > Possesses significant experience with Sarbanes-Oxley requirements
- > Extensive experience with SEC filings, including registration statements and comfort letters
- > Experienced with accounting for complex equity structures and revenue arrangements
- > Extensive experience in assisting companies with multiple international locations
- > Experience with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)

Industry involvement

- > American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- > Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants
- > Member of the Baker Tilly International North America and Global Audit and Accounting Committees

Community involvement

- > Instructor for the University of St. Thomas Mini Master of Medical Technology Management

Candor. Insight. Results.

Mike McKee, Page 2

Community involvement (cont.)

- > Instructor for the University of Minnesota Medical Device Innovation Bootcamp
- > Youth baseball coach, Minnetonka, Minnesota

Education

University of Minnesota - Carlson School of Management
Bachelor of Science in Accounting