

Gina G. Staudacher, JDPrincipal248 368 8882*gina.staudacher@bakertilly.com

Gina Staudacher, Principal, joined Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP in 2007 and serves as the firm's Specialty Tax Team Leader. Previously, Gina managed domestic and global R&D tax initiatives as Managing Director for a tax consulting and private equity firm. She served as Senior Counsel for a Fortune 100 automotive company and as a Senior Tax Manager at a "Big Four" accounting firm.

Specific experience

- > Partner in Charge of Specialty Tax Practice for the Firm.
- > Leads firm wide global R&D tax services, including traditional research tax credit studies, international R&D incentives, and related manufacturing and software engineering tax incentive projects.
- > Advises multi-national companies in a variety of federal tax areas, as well as IRS audit defense and accounting method advisory services.
- > Advises global companies on international tax compliance programs to coordinate local country tax planning and compliance with centralized domestic tax planning and compliance.
- > Assists clients in the development and management of outsourcing and co-sourcing structures to support tax compliance.

Industry involvement

- > Michigan Bar Association, International and Taxation Sections
- > Detroit Economic Club
- > Inforum (Detroit's Women's Economic Club)
- > Michigan Women's Tax Association

Education

University of Michigan
Bachelor of Arts in Economics, Cum Laude

Detroit College of Law
Juris Doctor, Magna Cum Laude