Gregg Weiss is a partner with Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP and has been with the firm since 1998. Gregg works closely with our clients in delivering financial statement audits, tax services, internal audits, and process evaluations to help improve their businesses.

Specific experience

Gregg has completed, led, and managed numerous internal audits, risk assessments, financial statement audits, reviews, compilations, and tax engagements in the following industries:

- > Non-Profit
- > Hospitality
- > Estate Developers
- > Government Contractors
- > Technology
- > Manufacturing
- > Newspaper Publishing
- > Retail/Distribution

Gregg's client base consists of both large, consolidated multi-state corporations and small closely-held companies. His tax experience consists of multi-state C Corporation and S Corporation tax compliance and consulting, as well as individual tax planning and compliance.

Gregg has also completed internal audits focusing on compliance with documented policies, procedures, and company guidelines. In addition to completing the audit, Gregg developed and presented the findings to senior management and made recommendations to improve effectiveness and efficiency. The audits include reviews of revenue, collections, cash receipts, payroll, purchasing, human resources, and other compliance related areas.

Candor. Insight. Results.
